EFPIA Disclosure Code 2018 Self-Certification Scheme

Healthcare professionals (HCPs) and healthcare organisations (HCOs) with whom Pfizer Inc works provide the Pharmaceutical Industry with valuable, independent and expert knowledge derived from their clinical and management experience. As owners of scientific knowledge and experts in medicinal products, pharmaceutical companies can be a unique resource to the healthcare systems and providers, which will ultimately benefit the patients.

Throughout the medicines life cycle pharmaceutical companies work with scientists and HCPs. These collaborations are essential in addressing patient needs. Industry and HCPs collaborate in a range of activities from clinical research to sharing best clinical practice and exchanging information on how new medicines fit into the patient pathway.

EFPIA and its member associations have adopted codes and guidelines to ensure that the interactions of their member companies with HCPs and HCOs meet the high standards of integrity and transparency. Building greater transparency to the relationships between pharmaceutical companies and HCPs/HCOs aims to building understanding of the collaboration and recognition of its value to patient care.

Except in countries where disclosure is prescribed by laws, Pfizer Inc hereby confirms that its disclosures of transfers of value (ToVs) to HCPs and HCOs made in 2017 have been reported in application of the EFPIA Disclosure Code following key principles:

Disclosure quality

Pfizer Inc certifies that:

- Its disclosures are made in each country where it operates;
- Its disclosures include direct and indirect ToVs, as defined in the codes and associated guidance issued by EFPIA;
- Its Methodological Note describes the process it has followed in order to compile the data hereby disclosed.

Methodology used for the collection and organisation of ToVs is in line with the EFPIA Disclosure Code's requirements and applicable codes

Pfizer Inc certifies that:

- Data collection complies with the requirements of the EFPIA Disclosure Code;
- Actions were taken to ensure individual disclosure for HCPs and HCOs' transfers of values (each as defined in the EFPIA Disclosure Code).

Sincerely,
